Mystery, romance and adventure come together in this engaging telenovela about the life and love of the legendary hero Zorro. When Diego de la Vega (Christian Meier) attempts to defend the poor against corrupt government officials, Diego takes sword in hand to fight injustice as the masked swashbuckler Zorro. He finds himself drawn to the beautiful and fiercely independent Esmeralda Sánchez de Moncada (Marlene Favela), but is cautious to reveal his identity and true feelings. Newly arrived to Los Angeles with her father, Fernando Sánchez de Moncada, the region's newly appointed governor, the rebellious Esmeralda captivates Zorro and slowly unravels the mystery of her maternal lineage. Eventually Diego will come face-to-face with the man whose horrific deed changed Diego's life forever.
